ANOTHER PLANT MAY LOCATE HERE

Establishment Will Employ Two Hundred and Fifty Hands

TO OCCUPY 3 SQUARES

Dr. A. Laria Hospital Appliance Company Will Operate Plant—Had Lease in 1907.

Alexandria is to have a big manufacturing establishment which will give employment to not less than 250 hands, according to reports received here today. It is stated that the Dr. A. Laria Ideal Hospital Appliances Co., who have large contracts with European governments for hospital supplies, will immediately commence the construction of large buildings for manufacturing plants, offices and residences for the officers and employees of the company.

The buildings are to be located on three squares of ground in the northeastern section of the city bounded by Royal, Montgomery, First streets and the Potomac river. The site is regarded as one of the most advantageous in the city. It is on the line of the Southern railway and the Washington and Old Dominion Railway and fronts for more than 300 feet on the Potomac river.

According to reports received here plans for the buildings have been prepared by John B. Tyrrell, architect, of 1910 Eighth street, N. W. Washington, who is asking for bids on the structures. In addition to the factory buildings and offices, 52 residences will be erected. From 45 to 48 of these will be for the employees and the rest for the officers of the company.

The land in question upon which the factory is to be built is at present owned by the city of Alexandria. On April 23rd, 1907, an ordinance was passed by the city council leasing the property to the Ideal Hospital Co., with the privilege of purchasing it after a period of 15 years. A nominal rental of $25 per annum was to be collected and the property was to be sold to the company after 15 years for $1,500. It was agreed that buildings were to be erected to cost not less than $25,000 and the company was to give employment to not less than 50 men all the year round. The company was to manufacture hospital beds, operating tables, stretchers, etc. It was stated in the ordinance that the lease was to be null and void if the company failed to commence the work of construction within 60 days after the lease was signed but no time for the signing of the lease was specified. No lease was signed as the panic of 1907 is said to have stopped the company from going ahead with its plant.

It is stated that the new company has contracts with the British government for more than $250,000 of its supplies and large orders from the Balkan states. They have also in prospect large contracts with the hospital branch of the United States Army.

The company referred to above procured the passage of an ordinance by the City Council in 1907 authorizing it to acquire certain property in the northeastern section of the city, on condition that the company would deposit a certified check for $100 with which to pay for advertising, etc., also that within sixty days it would begin the erection of a plant to cost $25,000.

The company failed to meet these requirements, and an ordinance was subsequently introduced in Council annulling the lease of the property to the company. The ordinance was referred to the joint committees on finance, public property and general laws, and on October 22, 1907, the committees reported in favor of adopting the ordinance. Both boards of the City Council adopted their report and adopted the ordinance, and it was approved October 28, 1907, and published officially in the Gazette November 9, 1907.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Richard D. Yates, former governor of Illinois, is named as correspondent in a divorce complaint filed yesterday in San Francisco, by Edward R. Freeman, a photographer of Eureka, Cal., against Emma B. Freeman. The complaint, alleges that Mrs. Freeman and Yates traveled together from Eureka to San Francisco in July, 1913. Among the charges made by Freeman against his wife are: "That she permitted Yates to hug her in every tunnel the train went through, at every bridge, and every time the whistle blew for a crossing. Yates denies the charges.

After her threat to commit suicide had been treated as a jest by her companions, Madeline Bickhard, aged 18 years old, jumped from a window of her home on the tenth floor of the Annehilde Apartment House in New York. Miss Bickhard, who was employed as an attendant in a sanatorium in Stamford, Conn., left a note for her mother saying: "Don't worry, dear mother, I am going to a better world. I could not stand the suffering," She had been ill of heart disease.

THREE NATIONS ARE WATCHING

Serious Diplomatic Situation Caused by German Dynamiter

TO ASK EXTRADITION.

Great Britain Informally Serves Notice That Van Horn Will be Demanded

Washington, Feb. 3.—Three governments are today closely watching each other in the diplomatic situation growing out of the action of Werner Van Horn, a native German in dynamiting the international railway bridge between this country and Canada. Officials in Washington, London, and Berlin are anxiously awaiting the first step in the effort of Canada to extradite Van Horn.

In many respects the situation is the most delicate in which the United States has figured since the outbreak of the European war.

Almost certain by the stand which it will take, to offend either Great Britain or Germany, the State Department faces the additional likelihood of offending in this country those who favor the cause of the allies or those who are pro-German.

The brazen act of a man who was desperate or insane has emphasized again the tortuous and dangerous paths traveled by this Government in its efforts to observe neutrality.

Great Britain, speaking through the government at Ottawa, has already served notice informally that she will demand the extradition of Van Horn who, after returning to the American side of the border, was arrested in a hotel at Vanceboro Me., Formal application for his extradition has been forwarded to Sir Arthur Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador in Washington.

SUES PRIEST FOR DIVORCE

Court Proceedings Sequel To Alleged Forced Marriage.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Feb.3—An echo of the sensational marrige January 28, 1914, o fthe Rev. Father M. M. Sweeney, formerly pastor of St. James' Church Sewickley, and Christina Moran, of the North Side, appeared in court yesterday when it was learned that Mrs Sweeney had filed a suit for divorce.

The libelant says she was married to Father Sweney on January 28, 1914, but that she never ived with him, and briefly asks that the marriage be declared null and void, because she was "forced and coerced into marrying him." At the time of the marriage it was alleged that charges of relations between the Moran woman and Father Sweeney had been made by brothers of the woman, and ended with an enforced demand made by the brothers that the priest marry their sister. Mrs. Sweeney later made a long affidavit asserting that they were forced to wed at the pont of revolvers in the hands of her three brothers. She denied that there were ever improper relations between herself and the priest and alleged the entire affair was spite work.

DISTRICT "JIM CROW" BILL

Measure Would Impose Fines and Imprisonment for Refusal

A favorable report on the "Jim Crow" bill for the District of Columbia was sent to the House by the District Committee yesterday, with an amendment imposing a fine and imprsonment on persons refusing to ride in their designated section of a car. The report was written by Representative Caraway of Arkansas. The report suggests that the middle door cars would make enactment of the law simple, as the whites could go to one end of the car and the colored persons to the other.

The report says the bill is reported favorably because of the numerous unpleasant experiences that occur on street cars under the present system, and states that the committee believes the enactment of the bill would benefit both races greatly It would give railway employes police power to enforce the provision of the law.

"BILLY" SUNDAY DECLINES.

Roanoke Committee is Turned Down Richmond Not Likely to Get Him.

Richmond, Feb. 3.—Regarding the fact that the sentiment among the clergy of this city is not unanimously for inviting "Billy" Sunday to Richmond, people interested in the movement to bring the evangelist here point out that Mr. Sunday has just declined an invitation to go to Roanoke because a single minister of that city was opposed to his coming.

Mr. Sunday stated to the Roanoke committee which visited him and tendered the invitation from that city that he had preached in cities where there was opposition to his coming and that he had never been able to overcome the effect which such opposition had on the success of his efforts.

It is pointed out that if Sunday refused to go to Roanoke because of the opposition of one pastor the probability of his coming to Richmond is remote, since the sentiment in favor of his coming here is far from unanimous among the clergy of this city.

NO DISCRIMINATION IN PRICES.

Members of Board Say Elementary Book Prices Are Favorable.

Richmond, Feb. 3—That far from being discriminated against in the matter of elementary school books Virginia is favored and that in the case of high school books Ohio and States with similar methods of distribution have a slight advantage in some instances over Virginia was the opinion of the members of the State Board of Education who testified last night before the Joint Committee of the General Assembly.

Superintendent Harris Hart, of Roanoke was the star witness. Mr. Hart, fortified with long tables of figures, explained that the preferential list adopted last May by the State Board of Education affected a decrease in the prices of books to elementary and to high schools, quoting the figures to show the amounts and the percentages. He explained, also, the apparent discrimination in favor of Ohio.

"North of Borzhymow, the enemy attacked in large force, but was repulsed with severe losses. Very stubborn fighting has occurred south of the Bzura but the Russians have recaptured all the positions lost in Sunday and Monday's fighting. South of the Pilic river and along the Donajec, the enemy's artillery fire has increased but his efforts to advance have been unsuccessful."

He died before the owner of the machine could get him to the West Philadelphia Homeopathic Hospital.

Young Roy started to go to school yesterday for the first time. When he returned home he got his sled and went to coast on a terrace on Media street west of Frazier. Several other boys, who were crossing on the terrace, were startled when they saw young Roy descend the grade on his sled and run under an automobile going east on Media street.

They shouted, but J. C. Steiner, of Glenside, who was driving the machine, had already realized the peril of the young coaster. He threw on the brakes, but the machine ran several yards before he could bring it to a stop. Roy's body was seen to whirl around one of the rear wheels. His clothing had been caught in the wheel. After Steiner extricated the boy's unconscious form he hurried him to the hospital, but Dr. C. H. Harvey pronounced him dead.

SEGREGATION WINS IN HOUSE

Nearly Two to One in Favor of Weaver Buchanan Tax Bill

TO DIVIDE PROPERTY.

Under the Measure Real Estate and Tangible Wealth Would Bear All the Local Taxation.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 3—With one member, John Y. Harris, of Dinwiddie, not voting, the House of Delegates, by a vote of 60 to 38 yesterday adopted the bill designed to segregate for the purpose of taxation the several kinds and classes of property, so as to determine upon what subjects State taxes may be levied, and to provide for the continuance for the year 1915 of the present State School tax of 10 cents on the one hundred dollars of the assessed value of real estate and intangible personal property.

It is now up to the State Senate to determine whether the General Assembly shall adopt better laws for taxation or adjourn without revising the code. All of the Richmond delegates voted for segregation excepting Hill, Montague, members of the Tax Commission which recommended the Tax Commission bill.

The amendment offered by E. W. Milstead and T. R. Gregory providing for a tax board to be composed cepting Hill Montague, member of the State Corporation Commission and one elective officer, to be known as State Tax Commissioner, was rejected by a vote of 53 to 38.

The bill provides that all taxable real estate and all taxable personal property (excepting rolling stock of corporations operating railroads by steam) shall be segregated and made subject to local taxation only. All insurance taxes and licenses on insurance companies and all taxable intangible personal property and the rolling stock of all corporations operating railroads by steam are made subject to State taxation only.

The Senate was enlivened with a debate over the Merchants' License tax, Senator Buchanan; Lesper and Andrews entering in debate of the subject.

GIVE ANOTHER CONCERT

Friske Jubile Singers Reappear in Alexandria Last Night And Receive Welcome.

The return engagement of the Famous Friske Jubilee Singers last evening was a splendid success and it is hoped that they will return often and never afil to stop off here in Alexandria. Although it took sometime for the sky-scout to get connection with Alexandria by wireless, nevertheless she is right here and very appreciative of a good entertainment.

An attractive programe of songs, dances, local hits, monologues kept the audience applauding continuously.

The end men, Mr. Dew Lockstader, Mr. Honey Boise, Mr. Sambo Baretones, and Mr. Abe Martin, to whom Messrs. Caton, Foster, Waller and Zachary had courteously loaned false-faces, were in fine voice, and beside their song hits, got off some amusing incidents. A miniature hospital appeared on the scene and after quite a discussion as to its "site," finally vanished.

Honey Boise was merry over the fact of his wife being far enough away to "eat beans with the refugees" and Sambo Baretones deplored the fact of the high cost of loving; each Mary and Jane wants to bathe in champagne, accompanied by the remark from one of the black faces, expressing his thoughts aloud—"some bath."

The chorus work was most creditable and the rendition of "Kentucky Babe" by ladies and "Mammy's Lullaby" by a selected octette were among the good numbers.

Mrs. Harry White, alias Patti Black, was gleefully tuneful over the prospect of taking up the tickets at the golden gate and feeling her nearness to the Angel Gabriel.

Mr. Dinwiddie, as Mr. Wm Bryan Jennings, proved a capable interlocutor, also rendering a melodious "Rag-Time Dream" selection.

Mr. and Mrs. Castle Black introduced a medley of all of the latest steps and gracefully dipped, glided, and trotted. Mrs. Castle Black's solo dance brought several encores until she drew off her wig and exposed her masculine head.

The skiddy-mer-rinks were an unheard of kind of goblin, whose long arms and large heads topped by artistic millinery were the surprise of the evening and each nod and wink from them brought out a chuckle from the audience.

The monologist's discourse on the apple and "De Grasshopper" hopping to grand opera strain were other entertaining themes.

The sky-scout, Honey Boise, with his beer-bottle glasses that enabled him to tell the course of the various war troops and after the difficulty of getting in connection with Alexandria and then "The Gazoote," proffered his information as the "Gazoote" never kenw nothin'.

The pianists were Miss Clarisse Dewdrop, Miss Katherine Waller, and Professor Mendelsohn Bischoff Paderewski, whose medley arrangement of the opening number deserves praise.

OPIUM QUEEN FINED $2,000

Jail Sentence Suspended Because of Betrayal of Confederates

New York, Feb. 3.— Mrs Sophie Ghee, known to the police as "the opium queen," was sentenced by the Federal Court yesterday afternoon to pay a fine of $2000 and to serve six months in the penitentiary for smuggling opium into the United States. Because of the aid given by her to the Government in apprehending 18 men associated with her, the District Attorney asked that the jail sentence be suspended, and this was done.

Mrs. Ghee, the wife of a Chinaman living in Liverpool, left New York for Liverpool, in December, before she was indicted, and was deported by the Liverpool authorities upon her arrival there.

WILL GIVE UP SUSPECT

Michael Volidi Alleged to Know About Hughes Crimes in Virginia.

Michael Volidi, alias J. Dunmond, the Turk held in New York as accessory before the fact in connection with the double murder January 10 at the home of Mrs. Mattie A. Hughes, near Clark Station, Va., will be extradited and taken to Virginia today to answer the charge lodged against him.

Word was received by Alexandria County, Va., authorities, yesterday afternoon that Judge Lehman, following the hearing of habeas corpus proceedings, had decided to deny the prisoner's demand to be set free and had authorized the extradition of the alleged murder accomplice.

Sheriff A. H. Barbour and Deputy Sheriff H. T. Palmer, of Alexandria County, left yesterday morning for New York. It is expected the officers and prisoner will arrive in Washington this afternoon. The prisoner may possibly be taken to police headquarters in Washington for cross-examination. Later he will be taken to Alexandria County Courthouse and locked up in the jail.

Volidi has not confessed, according to advices received last night. It is certain Volidi was not a principal in the murders, but Alexandria County authorities believe he was the person who conceived the plan and had it executed by New York gunmen in his employ. Search is being made for the principals, but so far no arrests have been made.

ASSOCIATION OF COLLEGES.

Representatives of Higher Institutions of Learning Meet.

Richmond, Feb. 3.— A new organization, to be known as the Associationtion of Virginia Colleges, was formed Monday at a conference of representatives of the educational institutions of the State, meeting at the Chamber of Commerce auditorium.

The officers of the new organization are: Dr. Henry Louis Smith, president; Dr. W. A. Webb, vice-president and Professor Charles G. Maphis, secretary treasurer. All the institutions of higher learning in Virginia are eligible for membership

At the morning and afternoon sessions of the conference yesterday, Professor Maphis, of the University of Virginia, acted as chairman and Dr. Wilson, of the College of William and Mary, as secretary. The chief topic of discussion was entrance and accrediting standards. Many subjects of interest to the colleges were debated, with substantial agreement resulting without the formality of resolutions.

It was resolved that the sense of the meeting was that any subject taught in the college course after the standard requirement of fourteen entrance units had been met, should count credit toward a college degree. Steps were taken, also, toward the adoption of uniform entrance blanks and the State Board of Education was requested to prepare a list of accredited high schools which should be used by all the Virginia colleges.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCKS

Shock in England Kills Miner and closes Several Pits

London, Feb 3—Earth shocks occurred Monday night in a number of districts in Yorkshire. One miner was killed and many had narrow escapes owing to the shaking down of coal in the pits. In some cases the pits were rendered unworkable by the fall of coal.

Rome, Feb. 3—Earth disturbances of a minor nature continue at Avezzano, one of the most important being the lowering of the level of Lake Paterno by 16 feet, after a vortex had appeared in its centre. This is interpreted as indicating a subterranean eruption, which, in subsiding drew into the earth an immense volume of water from the lake

PRESSIMISM IN GERMANY.

The Berliner Tageblatt, in its leading article today says:

"Contrary to official predictions it is uncertain whether Germany's hopes will be fulfilled and she will be victorious. We know the enemy's strength at present but not its strength in the future."

Purchase by the German Imperial family of large blocks of New York State bonds, to preserve part of the Hohenzollern fortune in the event of a German disaster, is announced in London, A telegram from New York to a newspaper in the British capital says:

"Information reaches me that the Hohenzollern family has made heavy purchases of New York State bonds issued last year, for use if the kaiser or his relatives are compelled to leave Germany. These bonds are for $51,000,000

"Large blocks of these bonds, of unknown amounts have been transferred to the Hohenzollerns"

The Berlin Tageblatt declares that the council of greater Berlin has appointed 12,000 special constables to guard the baker shops of the city against any "irregularities" on the part of the public.

Bread riots are feared.

The ministerial decree reducing the proportion of wheat or rye flour in breadmaking from 80 to 50 per cent comes into force in Vienna next Saturday.

Not more than 20 per cent of the constituents of bread may consist of potato meal and the remainder must be made up of barley, maize, oats, or rice and sugar. The use or sugar is restricted to 5 per cent.

Private households are forbidden to use the finer grades of flour for breadmaking. Confectioners may only use 70 per cent of the best flour in cakes and pastry, which after Saturday, may only be made on two days each week.

In ante-revolutionary days our forefathers, then British subjects, were possessed of a hallucination that English red coats were invinvible. Like most people in Germany everything told them of the power of British arms—that the plans of the army and navy officials could not miscarry.

As time went on, however, Americans began to soliloquize over the fact that at times British soldiers came out second best in fights with the aboringines of this continent, and when Braddock had his consultation with Washington in Alexandria the great Virginian, though a British officer himself, realized that there was danger in Braddock's expedition Braddock had been indulging in the dreams of his ancestors, and ignored Washington's advice an dhis tale is known to all school children. This incident, with others, caused our forefathers to lose faith in British prowess and added no little to the spirit of revolution later.

The Germans of this generation have been tutored in a similar school. Nothing, they have supposed, could stand in front of the Teuton eagle. These heretofore deluded people are now awake to the fact that Mars has other sons on this planet and that the great German machine has been halted.

If the Hohenzollerns are investing their fortunes in the United States this is most significant, and their example will surely be followed by others in the fatherland.

HOUSE ADOPTS SEGREGATION

As had been anticipated, the House of Delegates yesterday adopted the Weaver-Buchanan bill which provides for segregation of taxes in Virginia. While it is realized that the fight in the Senate over the commission and segregation plans will be close, it is probable that body will concur in the action of the lower house. The Governor will, of course, sign the bill, as it embraces his convictions.

The provisions of the segregation bill were published in the Gazette a few days ago. Many representative people in the state who have given the matter of taxation close study believe this measure will prove acceptable to the large majority and will tend to silence the chronic complaints of people of some sections that they are compelled to pay the bulk of the state taxes by making up arrearages of other places in the commonwealth.

MILITARY HEADS MEET

Annual Conference of Officers Held Yesterday With Adjutant General Sale.

Richmond, Feb. 3—Department heads and commanding officers of all militia units in Virginia assembled here yesterday for the second annual officers' conference. The first meeting was held last night in the offices of Adjutant General W. W. Sale, and another session was held today beginning at 9:30 o'clock.

The idea of the conference is to increase the efficiency of the State troops. The officers are invited by General Sale to give any suggestions, which in their opinion, would be for the good of the service. Their observations at the camp of instruction, and on other duty, are asked for, and all criticisms of existing conditions invited. As each point is raised there is a general discussion. From the interchange of ideas many beneficial things will be learned.

Much of the time at the conference will be given over to a discussion of the finances. The Virginia troops this year will not receive as much from the Federal government as they have in the past, on account of the sharp cut in the military appropriation. It will require considerable scheming to make the funds cover out the regular yearly program.

The question of holding a State encampment this summer will be taken up. There is some talk of postponing the annual camp and expending the money in other directions and at the same time give a change for the military men. Whether this will be done will be discussed at the meeting.

BYRD LIQUOR LAW.

Kinks in Byrd Act Straightened Out By Virginia Senate.

Richmond, Feb. 3—Throwing aside for the moment the all absorbing topic of tax reform in Virginia, the Senate last night in session to consider legislation unrelated to taxation, passed several local bills which have been introduced during the special session as emergency measures.

The kinks in the Byrd law were straightened out. When this measure, designed to regulate the "sale manufacture, distribution, rectifying manufacture and distilling of intoxicating liquors and malt beverages," was passed in a recent session of the Legislature and was made law, the statute was found to be ineffective when it was discovered that certain omissions had been made by the clerk in its enrollment. Senators West and Mapp were patrons of the measure passed last night, which will carry out the original designs of the Byrd law. The bill as passed embodies the provisions of the act of 1910, which act has been generally observed, notwithstanding technical defects in the manner of its passage.

DEATH OF JOHN P BRANCH

Prominent Richmond Banker Succumbs After Illness of a few Weeks

Richmond, Feb 3—John Patterson Branch, president of the Merchants National Bank, dean of the Richmond bankers, and a well known philanthropist, died last night at his home, in his eighty-fifth year. He had been prominent in church and social circles and had a splendid record as a staff officer in the Confederate army.

Mr. Branch was born in Petersburg, Va., October 9, 1830, and for many years was prominent in the business and banking life of that city. At the outbreak of the civil war he enlisted in the Confederate army, and became first lieutenant in the Fourth Virginia battalion. Later he was detailed on the staff of Maj. Snodgrass, acting quartermaster general of Gen. Lee's army. He was at the surrender of Appomatox.

Mr. Branch was a member of the Sons of the Revolution, the Country Club of Virginia, and was twice a member of the executive committee of the American Bankers' Association.

RAILROADS KEPT BUSY

Revival of Business In South Compels Increase in Freight Service

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 3—So much freight is being offered for shipment to coast points that the railroads of Georgia and their connecting lines are putting on extra trains to handle the business and the trains are being run on very fast schedules.

The revival of business since the first of the year has been extraordinary, according to the freight officials. Last fall many trains were taken off, but the freight offerings since the beginning of the new year have forced the restoration of these trains and the addition of others.

Heavy shipments of cotton goods from the mills in Alabama, Georgia and South Carolina are going to the Atlantic seaboard and to cities in the North and East, The majority of these shipments will go to Europe as many of the Southern cotton mills have orders from Great Britain, France, and Russia, The movement of raw cotton to the ports is also very heavy, as the advance in price has caused the farmers to quit holding and market freely.

"We are now running the fastest freight service from points west to east in the history of the road," said E. S. Center, assistant general freight agent of the Atlanta and West Point. "and move the perishable goods and also the products from the Georgia cotton mills to points where quick conncetion can be effected for routes through to the North and East.

"Shipments of goods from Eastern points and for European ports are pouring through this section from the Pacific Coast and have forced all the railroads to put on extra trains."

POSTOFFICE ROBBED AGAIN.

For Third Time Within Twelve Months Money is Stolen—Nearly $500 Taken.

Danville, Va., Feb. 3.—For the third time within twelve months the postoffice of Schoolfield was broken into early yesterday morning, the safe dynamited and nearly $500 stolen The cracksmen, stylishly dressed men, were caught beneath a box car near Danville two hours after the thud of the nitrogrycerine awakened people near the postoffice, but because they were quicker with their guns they gave the officers the slip, and last night are still at large. A police officer who walked up the track towards Schoolfield shortly after the alarm was given found a freight train about to start south. Beneath one of the cars and actually on the ties his flashlight revealed a crouching man. Pulling his revolver, the officer told the man to come out, but a voice behind his shoulder bade him drop his weapon. Looking round the policeman found himself covered with a revolver. The man beneath the car slid across the metals on the far side of the train. His partner, covering the officer, backed away dodging around the rear of the train fled into the night. One of the robbers dropped an overcoat and hat in his flight. In one pocket were 300 pennies and in the other two bottles of nitroglycerine. All marking in the coat had been torn out.

BOUGHT TWO COFFINS.

Bristol, Va., Feb. 3.—Ex-Mayor William L. Rice, of Bristol, brother-in-law of the late Judge Roger A. Pryor of New York, is critically ill in this city. The former municipal executive has purchased his coffin and had it placed in his home. His wife is also ill and he has purchased a casket for her and the two aged people are now calmly awaiting the end.

Ex-Mayor Rice is now 80 years old and has the distinction of having been the first mayor of Bristol. He served in 1854-56 and retired to be re-elected again in 1902. He served 12 years, having only recently retired. In recognition of his excellent work as mayor, the city council some time ago elected Captain Rice public building inspector, and he continued to draw a salary from the city, although he has not been active for some time .

"I will die without leaving a dollar to anyone," said the former mayor, who has become known as "Bristol's grand old man." Continuing he said that he had lived a life of service to his fellow men and had given no time or thought to the accumulation of a private fortune.

STORMS AND FLOODS.

West And Northwest in Grip of Winter.

Chicago, Feb. 3.—The entire West and Northwest continue in the grip of the blizzard, and almost every section of the country is being swept by storms, either rain, snow or sleet. The loss of life has been considerable, according to meager reports coming in over crippled wires. To the six dead in Chicago must be added three in West Virginia and two near Latrobe, Pa.

Cleveland, Feb. 3.—Hundreds of families have been driven from their homes, a number of manufacturing plants have been forced to shut down, throwing thousands out of work, transportation has been hampered and bridges washed out by floods in the southeastern section of the State.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Fb. 3.—Danger from flood is increasing. The Ohio River at the junction of the Allegheny and Monongahela Rivers had reached a height of 26 feet and with the steady rainfall throughout western Pennsylvania it is expected that the crest, 28 or 30 feet, will be reached tonight. The river at present is four feet above the flood leevl and higher than at any period since the spring of 1913. Merchants are removing their goods from warehouses along the waterfront. Residents in the lowlands worked all night carrying their household goods to the upper floors.

Philadelphia, Feb. 3.—The Schuylkill River, swolln by the heavy rains, went on a rampage Monday night and yesterday morning for the third time in three weeks and rose to the greatest height this winter, breaking all records for the last thirteen years. Many mills in the Manayunk section were forced to close down and the streets were flooded. The river drive in Fairmount Park is covered with water.

Indications last were that if there is more rain today a dangerous flood along the Potomac River and smaller streams will be probable. A rise of more than ten feet, due to the heavy rains and melted snow, was reported in the Potomac at Hancock and Williamsport last night.
